

Marty Picco, Vice President, Systems & Technology, Harmonic Inc.

---

Marty Picco joined Harmonic in 2000 and is currently Vice President, Systems and Technology. Mr. Picco brings over 20 years of telecommunications, engineering, and marketing experience and is responsible for the system and software engineering as well as advanced development of the digital TV systems. Prior to working for Harmonic, he was President and CEO of Cogent Technology, which Harmonic acquired in 2000.

An experienced speaker, he has presented at several conferences. Mr. Picco has a MSEE from Cornell University and completed an Executive Management Program at Stanford University.